Some Must Show Through

October 27, 2011

The story is told of a little boy who came home from school one day, and while he was having a snack in the kitchen he asked his mother, “Momma, is it true that God lives in us?” She said, “Why yes, that’s true.” Then the little boy followed up with the following question, “Momma, is it true that God bigger than the whole world?” To which she responded, “Yes, he is.” For the next minute, the little boy sat with a wrinkled brow, look off as in deep thought, then finally said, “Mamma, if God is bigger than the whole world and if he lives in me, some of him should show through.”

Excellent observation. Indeed some of God must show through if he lives in us. The question is, “Does he?” What about your life. If God is in you, he should show through. When people look at your life, are they able to see God? Give is some thought.
