"He delights in mercy" (Micah 7:18)

Good Advice For Life's Journey

(author unknown)

A badger met a skunk one day,
Who wouldn't share the right of way,
And raised his battle flag and said,
"If you want trouble, just come ahead."
The badger said, "You little squirt,
"You're a stinker, mean as dirt,
But since you have so much B.O.,
I'll step aside and let you go."
The moral of this little episode,
Can serve you well along life's road.
Stay clear of all that could defile,
Though it makes you walk an extra mile.
