

Sin's Weight

(Micah 7:18; Psalm 51:3)

- Introduction:
1. Have you ever struggled with feeling forgiven?
 2. Have you ever doubted your salvation because of your imperfections?
 3. Have you ever asked God multiple times, to forgive the same sin that you committed at a particular time?
 4. Have you ever struggled under the weight of sin?
 5. If so, why?
 6. Why is it that in light of statements made by Micah (Micah 7:18), our sins are ever before us (Psalm 51:3).
 7. This lesson will offer at least three reasons why.

I. We Don't Trust God Enough

- A. (1 Thessalonians 5:23-34).
- B. (2 Timothy 1:12).
- C. (Hebrews 6:9-20).
- D. God won't go back on his word.

II. We Don't Understand Grace

- A. (1 John 1:7).
- B. (Romans 8:1).
- C. As long as we are walking in the light, we continue to be cleansed of our sins and be in fellowship with God.

III. We May Not Qualify For Pardon

- A. (Numbers 14:18).
- B. (Acts 2:36-38).
- C. (Acts 8:13-24).

- Conclusion:
1. As the prophet Micah said, "God delights in mercy!"
 2. Let that attribute of God's goodness and character lead you to repentance (Romans 2:4).
