

Squeezing The Most Out Of Scripture

(Psalm 119)

- Introduction:
1. There are so many truths contained in Scripture, that even after a lifetime of study, we find new applications, and new expressions of truths that are clearly revealed.
 2. These truths often become clear to us as we spend time in the Scriptures.
 3. I want to examine a few Scriptural truths that have become axiomatic, but I'd like to look at them from a different angle and examine other truths that become uncovered when we do so.
- I. Jesus loves me this I know, or Jesus knows me this I love!
- A. (Gal. 2:20).
 - B. (Mt. 10:29-31).
 - C. (Psalm 139).
- II. If a man dies, shall he live again, or If a man lives, shall he die again?
- A. (Job 14:14).
 - B. (Rev. 3:5; 22:19; 20:15).
- III. If I should die before I wake, or if I should wake before I die?
- A. (2 Cor. 5:8-10).
 - B. (Rom. 14:8).
- IV. Pray without ceasing or cease praying?
- A. (1 Thess. 5:17).
 - B. (Acts 22:16).
- Conclusion:
1. Let's determine to spend more time meditating upon the God's truths revealed in Scripture.
 2. When we do, we'll discover many more truths and applications that will challenge us.
