

Legacy

(Psalm 145:4)

- Introduction:
1. “One generation shall praise your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts” (Psalm 145:4).
 2. The above verse is speaking of legacy.
 3. What kind of legacy are you leaving your children and grandchildren?
 4. Are you demonstrating to them that God and his kingdom are of the utmost importance to you?
 5. Let’s examine the legacy of a few people in Scripture that represents many still today.

I. The Legacy of Obstruction

- A. (Acts 13:4-12).
- B. (Acts 14:1-20).
- C. Some live their lives in defiant obstruction to anything good.
- D. What would the first thought of the elders of the church be when they thought of your name?

II. The Legacy of Procrastination

- A. (Acts 24:22-27).
- B. (Acts 17:32).
- C. Regretfully, Hell will be filled with good intentioned people.
- D. We often feel pity for procrastinators, and want to find a loophole for them, but think of the ugliness of procrastination.

III. The Legacy of Obedience

- A. (Acts 8:26-40).
- B. (Acts 18:8).
- C. What great courage and humility can one leave his children than to obey the Lord?

- Conclusion:
1. We all are leaving a legacy for our family and friends.
 2. What will our legacy say?
 3. How will people summarize our lives?
 4. A better question would be how will God summarize our lives?
 5. If you need to make some changes, why not make them today?
