“Today’s youth love luxury and have bad manners. They hold authority in contempt; they no longer stand up when an adult enters the room; they talk back to parents and contradict them; they talk too much in the presence of company; they talk nonsense instead of working; they put themselves all over the furniture; and they guzzle their food.”

-- Socrates, 500 B.C.

Raise
them Right

- There is nothing new under the Sun (Ecc. 1:10)
- Many of the problems that we see in young people are the result of their parents.
- Deuteronomy 6:4-9 – (Mezuzah)
- Ephesians 6:4
- How can we raise responsible, godly children in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation?
