

The Best Day Ever!

(Matthew 25:31-46)

- Introduction:
1. What has been the best day of your life?
  2. Have you ever been so excited about a day that you couldn't sleep?
  3. On the flip side, what has been the worst day of your life?
  4. In this lesson, I want to make sure that what should be the best day of our lives is not a day we dread.
  5. What a tragedy if we rob ourselves by replacing our joy and happiness with fear and anxiety.

I. The Best Day Ever - Judgment Day

- A. The best day ever will be the Day of Judgment.
- B. Yet, this is often considered as a day of fear and dread by God's children.
- C. How often when we talk about the Day of Judgment do we speak of warnings, destruction, eternal fire, unpreparedness, regret, and agony?
  1. (Revelation 20:10-15).
  2. (2 Peter 3:7).
  3. (2 Thessalonians 1:8-9).
  4. (Hebrews 10:27).
- D. While these things will exist for the ungodly, this is not what the children of God will experience.
- E. Instead of talking about what will happen to the ungodly on the Day of Judgment, why shouldn't we be talking about what will happen to the godly on the Day of Judgment?

II. Why This Will Be The Best Day Ever

- A. Consider how the child of God should be thinking about this day.
- B. (2 Peter 3:10-14).
- C. (Hebrews 10:19-23; 12:18-24).
- D. (2 Thessalonians 1:6-7).
- E. (Romans 3:26; 8:31-39).
- F. (Matthew 25:31-40).

- Conclusion:
1. For the child of God who is walking in the light (not the perfect child of God, but the faithful child of God), the Day of Judgment will be the best day of your life!
  2. Don't dread it! Look forward to it.
  3. Be involved in the work that will hasten its coming.
