

Reasons for Our ThankFULLNESS

(Psalm 107)

- Introduction:
1. Have you ever noticed in your prayers a disparity between asking and thanking?
  2. According to Philippians 4:6, we are to do both.
  3. Thus far, we have examine three:
    - a. God is good.
    - b. God's mercy endures forever.
    - c. God has redeemed us.
  4. The intent of this sermon series is to remind us of the many reasons for which we should give thanks.

I. Give Thanks for God's Deliverance

- A. (Psalm 107:6).
- B. From what have you been delivered?
- C. Think of the things from which we could have been delivered were it not for God's providence.
- D. (2 Timothy 4:18).

II. Give Thanks for God's Leadership

- A. (Psalm 107:7).
- B. Consider Psalm 23.
- C. "He leadeth me, oh, blessed thought..."

III. Give Thanks for God's Fulfillment

- A. (Psalm 107:9).
- B. He satisfies the longing soul, not the longings of the flesh.
- C. (Isaiah 43:19).
- D. (Psalm 42:1).
- E. (Matthew 5:6).

- Conclusion:
1. Thankfulness and the lack thereof are more than just good manners.
  2. Unthankfulness is listed among such sins as brutality, unholiness, and blasphemers.
  3. Think to thank, and give God what is due and what is expected.
