

Think and Do Better

(Psalm 119:59-60)

- Introduction:
1. Psalm 119 is an amazing psalm in both content and structure.
 - a. It is the longest chapter in the Bible, containing 176 verses.
 - b. It is also an acrostic poem.
 - c. It is divided into 22 stanzas.
 - d. Each verse in each stanza begins with a letter of the Hebrew alphabet.
 2. The topic: God's word and how it is to be treasured.
 3. In summary, it is "The Bible from A to Z."
 4. This morning, we're not going to study or even read all 176 verses, we're going to examine just two.
 5. Consider Psalm 119:59-60.

I. "I Thought About My Ways"

- A. (Psalm 119:59)
- B. He engaged in introspection.
- C. (Luke 15:17).
- D. (1 Corinthians 11:28).
- E. (2 Corinthians 13:5).
- F. (Psalm 90:10-12).

II. "I Turned My Feet to Your Testimonies"

- A. (Psalm 119:59)
- B. Appeal to the proper source.
- C. This world has many voices that call to us (Jeremiah 5:30-31, 6:14; 2 Peter 2:1; 1 John 4:1).
- D. (Proverbs 16:25).

III. "I Made Haste and Did Not Delay..."

- A. (Psalm 119:60)
- B. He responded without delay.
- C. (2 Corinthians 6:2).
- D. (John 9:4).
- E. Delay is often costly (Matthew 25:1-13).

- Conclusion:
1. I think a couple of the greatest challenges to Christians today is lethargy or lukewarmness, and a failure to evaluate our true standing before God.
 2. (Revelation 3:1).
 3. I dare say that many of us here today need to think and do better.
 4. Let's resolve to do those two things right now and manifest it in the way we live this week.
