

Types & Anti-Types

“Moses: A Type Of Jesus”

(Deuteronomy 18:15-19; Acts 3:22-23)

- Introduction:
1. There are certain events and certain characters in the Old Testament that foreshadow New Testament events and characters.
  2. Sometimes this foreshadowing may be considered co-incidental, but sometimes, it is explicitly planned by God in his foreknowledge.
  3. Such is the case with Moses and Jesus.

Moses: A Type Of Jesus
Moses (Deuteronomy 18:15-19)	Jesus (Acts 3:22-23)
He Escaped A Decree of Death When Just A Baby (Exodus 1:22; 2:1-10)	He Escaped A Decree Of Death When Just A Baby (Matthew 2:13-18)
He Forsook Riches To Save Israel (Hebrews 11:24-27)	He Forsook Riches To Save Us (2 Corinthians 8:9; Philippians 2:5-8)
He Was Sent To Deliver His People (Exodus 3)	He Was Sent To Deliver All Men (Matthew 1:21; John 3:16)
The Old Law Was Given By Moses (Exodus 20)	The New Law Was Given By Jesus (Hebrews 8:6-13; Ephesians 2:15)
Moses Had Aaron For His Spokesman (Exodus 4:10-17)	Jesus Sent The Apostles To Speak For Him (Matthew 28:19-20; Mark 16:15)
Moses And Aaron Performed Miracles To Prove Their Claims (Exodus 4:1-9, 29-31)	Jesus And The Apostles Performed Miracles To Prove Their Claims (John 20:30-31; Mark 16:20; 2 Cor. 12:12)
Israel Turned From Serving Pharoah To Follow Moses (Exodus 4:29-31; Psalm 106:10)	Men Turn From Serving Satan To Follow Jesus (Matthew 11:28-31; 16:24; Acts 3:19)
By Faith Israel Was Baptized Unto Moses (Ex. 14:29; 1 Cor. 10:1-2; Heb. 11:29)	By Faith Men Are Baptized Into Christ (Galatians 3:26-27; Acts 8:37; Mark 16:16)
Israel Was Not Saved Until Baptized Unto Moses (Exodus 14:30)	Men Are Not Saved Until They Are Baptized Into Christ (Rom. 6:3; Gal. 3:26-27; 2 Timothy 2:10)