

It's Your Responsibility

(Romans 14:12)

- Introduction:
1. As human beings we have a tendency to place the blame of our actions on others.
 2. This is as old as man himself, and still wrong.
 3. This lesson is intended to remind you that you are responsible for your own life.

I. Take Responsibility In Your Home

- A. (Ephesians 6:1-4).
- B. Parents, don't be guilty of standing in the way of your child's salvation.
- C. Young people, don't be guilty of rationalizing disobedience.
- D. (Deuteronomy 6:4-9).
- E. (Romans 1:30).

II. Take Responsibility In Your Relationships

- A. (1 Peter 4:4).
- B. (Romans 12:2).
- C. Watch your words, actions, and attitudes.
- D. (1 Corinthians 15:33).
- E. (2 Corinthians 6:14).

III. Take Responsibility In The Church

- A. (Matthew 25:14-30).
- B. There is a tendency for God's people to boast and coast.
- C. There is so much work to do, please enlist your help (Eph. 1:22-23).

IV. Take Responsibility For Your Relationship With God

- A. (1 Corinthians 10:13).
- B. (1 Samuel 15:20-22).
- C. (Philippians 1:20-21).

- Conclusion:
1. You are responsible before God.
 2. Some day you will give an account for your life.
 3. If you gave account right now, would God be pleased?
 4. Take responsibility today by resolving to live more closely to Christ.
